CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Last month's meeting was a social event with the Clemson University ASME Student Chapter. I think that everyone had a good time. Thanks to the Greenville Section members that took part in the softball game. Any achy muscles?

Jim

Batton

A couple of non-participating Section members.

History and Heritage

by Brian Sealy, History & Heritage Chair

When was ASME founded?

The American Society of Mechanical Engineers was founded in 1880. The first meeting was held on February 16 in the New York offices of the American Machinist with 30 engineers in attendance. On April 7, a formal organizational meeting was held at Stevens Institute of Technology. The first annual meeting was held in early November, 1880.

Honors and Awards

by Craig Brandon, Honors & Awards Chair

The strength of our professional society rests on the dedication of its members. The Council of Member Affairs of ASME International has recognized SEVEN members of our Section who have achieved 50 years of membership. In addition, TEN members of our Section are being recognized for 25 years of membership. Certificates and rockers for the membership pins will be presented to these distinguished engineers at the November meeting. The members are

50 - year

Lewis Brown	James Edwards
